

All collection channels, one secure platform

Convoke serves as the central hub between credit issuers and third parties who collect consumer debt, bringing accountability to every aspect of recovery.

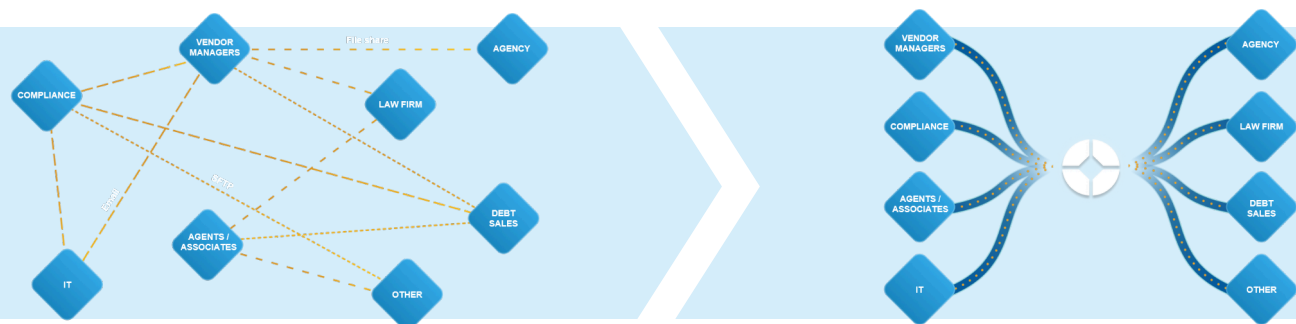

Introducing Freeform

Freeform is a collaboration platform that enables credit issuers to easily and safely share documents with third parties. All files remain nested within Convoke's industry-trusted architecture.

TACKLING THE KEY PROBLEMS

-  Enable security audits
-  Share files securely
-  Manage complexity
